

Collector's Corner is one of our best advertisers. The store has been doing business for a very long time. As the company's name shows, anything collectible is offered. They have silk shirts, embroidered hats, and election signs in season. Collector's Corner has a large showroom that invites shopping and browsing.

December 8, 2011 - Middle Keys - Jessica Mintz: Mark your calendars for Saturday, December 17, 2011, from 10 am - 2 pm for Forgotten Felines Christmas Cats Adoption Event and Bake Sale at the Purr-Fect Thrift store across the Marathon City Park.

Meet sweet and loving kittens and cats available for adoption and no matter what color, personality or age you are looking for, we have the purr-fect companion for you.

Centennial Bank Big Pine Branch will serve free hot dogs and chips and if your cat or dog is due for its rabies vaccinations, Cheap Shots will give free 3-years rabies vaccines for cats and dogs from 1-2 pm. Enjoy home-made goodies by our volunteers and find last minute stocking stuffers and gifts for the cat lover on your list.

All monies raised from our bake sale will be used towards our cat food expenses. Even if you do not plan to adopt at this time, please come out and meet our wonderful volunteers and check out our bake sale.

If you love to bake and would like to donate a baked item to our bake sale, please contact Jessica at keysforgottenfelines@live.com by December 15. We hope to see you on the 17th!
